POLICE UNABLE TO BREAK ALIBI OF UPHOLSTERER

Joseph Gedeon, 54, Lies Exhausted in Cell After Grilling

FELONY CHARGE FILED

Sewers, Pipes Searched For Weapon Fatal to Roomer

NEW YORK, April 2—(UP)—Joseph Gedeon, 54-year-old upholsterer, clung stoutly to his alibi today, balking a 33-hour police attempt to link him to the triple murder of his beautiful artists' model daughter, his estranged wife and Frank Byrnes, a lodger in his wife's apartment.

"I have done nothing," the slight, bespectacled man repeated, while detectives took turns trying to break down his claim that he had been drinking beer and bowling during the hours when the murders were committed last Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Gedeon lay exhausted in a jail cell early today awaiting arraignment in felony court on a charge of possessing a revolver without a permit. The weapon was found in Gedeon's shop beneath a pile of upholsterer's trimmings. He readily admitted ownership.

Complete Report Awaited

Investigators believed that the motive for the series of murders was either sexual or one of revenge, but that it would be impossible to determine definitely until a complete report had been submitted by the medical examiner.

Veronica Gedeon, 20-year-old artists' model, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Gedeon, 54, had been strangled. Byrnes had been stabbed with an instrument such as an ice pick or an upholsterer's needle.

The verbal "third degree" to which Gedeon was subjected was interrupted long enough to permit him to attend the funeral of his wife and daughter yesterday. As stolid as he had been throughout the questioning, the wiry little man, escorted by five detectives, attended private services in the chapel of a funeral home and watched the burial in St. Mary's cemetery in Yonkers, N. Y.

Search Nets Nothing

Investigators searched Gedeon's upholsterer's shop so thoroughly that it looked as if a hurricane had struck it, but they appeared balked at every turn. A similar search was ordered of the five-room apartment where the slaying occurred. Plumbing will be ripped out and the drain pipes searched today for the weapon that killed Byrnes. A number of upholsterer's needles were removed from Gedeon's shop and taken to the police laboratory for examination.

So intensive has been the hunt for the weapon that all sewers in the area surrounding the scene of the slayings have been searched by crews of men from the bureau of sewers, the police said, but without result.

One witness came forward to strengthen Gedeon's alibi. Anthony Rocco, 31, who occupies the apartment above Gedeon, told detectives that he saw the upholsterer stagger home at 3:05 a. m. Sunday—the hour investigators believed Veronica met her slayer.

Rocco said Gedeon was wearing a hat at the time—a hat the police never have been able to find. Gedeon said he lost it, probably in the bar where he said he spent Saturday night. Rocco's statement only complicated the puzzle.

Gedeon, a Hungarian who came to the United States 3 years ago and became a citizen eight years ago, told police he enjoyed looking at pictures of naked women and studying erotic books.

The police hunted five women who at one time or another had figured in the little man's life.

"We're interested in every woman Gedeon knew," said Lieut. Walter Harding.

Although Gedeon has the appearance of being weak, the police said he was physically strong, his arms strengthened by his upholsterer's work. He bows frequently, using a ball weighing 16 pounds.

He was haggard and worn when led from detectives' headquarters to his cell last night. He answered "yes" in a calm monotone when asked if he admitted ownership of the pistol found in his shop.

YOUNG ACTOR'S AUNT IN COURT ASKING CUSTODY

LOS ANGELES, April 2—(UP)

—The aunt who reared Freddie Bartholomew, child movie star who earns $1,250 a week, said today that the boy's parents had agreed to let her adopt him.

A petition for adoption was filed in court yesterday by the aunt, Miss Millicent Bartholomew.

She requested a quick decision. Judge Fletcher Bowron set the case for Saturday.

"The parents agree that since I am managing the boy, such a plan is for his best general welfare," Miss Bartholomew said.

A year ago, the aunt precipitated a legal battle when she tried to adopt Freddie. The parents raised objections and peace was restored only after the boy's mother came from London to get him and an arrangement was reached whereby Freddie's salary was divided in four portions: one-fourth to the support of the boy and his aunt; one-fourth to the parents; one-fourth to his sisters Ellen, 16, and Hilda, 14 who are all strangers to Freddie, and one-fourth to be placed in a trust fund for the young actor.

12 FEARED DEAD IN TRAIN CRASH IN LONDON, ENG.

LONDON, April 2 — (UP)

Twelve persons were estimated killed today and 30 injured in a collision of electric passenger trains near Victoria station in central London.

One train was on a viaduct near Poupard's junction outside the station, awaiting a signal to go ahead. The second train, speeding in from Coudson, south of London, crashed into it.

Because the crash occurred on a viaduct, rescue work was impeded. Police had difficulty in restraining crowds and making way for stretcher bearers, surgeons and nurses.

Railroad accidents are rare in Great Britain. But 17 persons were injured at Bow station, in East London, yesterday in a collision similar to today's.

TED LYONS HURT

PASADENA, Cal., April 2—(UP)—Ted Lyons was out of the Chicago White Sox lineup today with a bandage nose. A grounder off Zeke Bonura's bat bounced into Lyons' face yesterday. His nose was not believed broken.

CONSTIPATION IS A MISERABLE THING!

It takes the pep right out of you—makes you feel tired and irritable—ready to worry over the slightest thing.

Yet it can be corrected in most cases so easily. Common constipation is usually caused by lack of "bulk" in the foods you eat.

Millions of people have learned that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN ends constipation by putting "bulk" back in the diet. Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass and gently sponging out the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B to tone the intestines and iron for the blood.

Two tablespoonfuls daily as a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes, are sufficient. Three times daily in severe cases.

Sold at all grocers—and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

UNBLOCKING FOR PARTNER

Tossing away an intermediate honor so that your partner may be able to win the first trick of that suit with a lower card and then make a second lead toward your major tenace is a play which comes up only once in a blue moon, and then it is employed only by top rank performers. Failure to do this can result in compelling the holder of the major tenace to be in the lead at just the time he does not want to be, thereby obliging him to lead to the enemy's king.

In the duplicate where this deal was played most South players ended up in a contract of 3-No Trump. West led the spade 5 and North's spade 6 held the trick. The declarer then ran four club tricks, after which he led the spade queen. West covered and the trick was won with dummy's ace. When a diamond was now led, East, figuring the dummy killed, held off for one round, so that on the second diamond lead, won with the ace, West was obliged to discard a heart. When East led the heart 10, West was obliged to win it with the heart jack and lead up to South's heart king or spade tenace.

Where Oswald Jacoby, for three years ranking championship player of the country, sat in the West position, and the play had proceeded up to that point, he discarded the heart jack instead of the heart 4 on the second diamond lead, so that his partner was able to hold the first heart trick with the 10 and come through again, killing South's king.

FENDERS BENT WHEN TWO CARS SIDESWIPE

Fenders were bent at 11:15 a. m. Friday when the Circleville Oil Co. truck, driven by James Trimmer, and the coupe drive by Mrs. Frank R. Beck, Northridge road, collided in N. Court street.

Mr. Trimmer had stopped his truck in the street while he talked with Leslie May in another car. The accident took place when Mrs. Beck, going north, started to pass the oil company truck on the right side. Mr. Trimmer started to drive at the same time, the cars hitting fenders.

will be increased from 8,144 to 12,647.

As part of the reorganization of staff and technical branches, there will be a general air staff at the top with four territorial air zones. There will be a superior air council for Italian East Africa and one command each for Sicily, Sardinia, Libya and the Aegean islands.

It was noted that the zones outside Italy proper were of obvious strategic value.

Sardinia, to the west, is midway between Italy and Spain and is within striking distance of France. Sicily and Libya face each other across the narrow Mediterranean, with the island of Pantelleria, now to be fortified, between them. From the Aegean, Italian planes could strike at the Suez canal area and East Africa borders the Red Sea on the route to India and the far east.

hour's flight from Germany and France.

The most remarkable defense scheme is a vast hedge of balloons around the capital, anchored at a great height, between which will be suspended aprons of heavy, dangling wires designed to entangle the propellers of enemy aircraft and crash them. Critics contend that modern planes fly high enough to surmount the balloon barrage.

Additional precautions are batteries of anti-aircraft guns, searchlights, sound detectors, a network of telephonic communications and a device called a "predictor" which can automatically compute an airplane's future position. Twenty thousand men from the territorial (militia) are being enlisted in the anti-aircraft division.

Almost nightly London's millions hear the drone of airplanes testing the defense devices and organization. The air raid precaution department has instituted an educational program and organization against gas attack. It includes the training of ambulance units, establishing of first aid posts, fire company drills and instructions on how the people can prepare anti-gas rooms in their houses.

ROOT FINED FOR BREAKING CITY'S SIGN ORDINANCE

Root, Mayor Graham ordered him to remove the obstruction.

More Cases Expected

"You'll have more of these cases within the next few days on about every merchant in Circleville," J. W. Adkins, Jr., attorney for Mr. Root, told the mayor. Adkins contended there are numerous signs in the downtown district that fail to comply with the ordinance.

The ordinance regarding signs follows: It shall be unlawful for any person, occupant of any store or any other building to put up, hang, place or erect on any sidewalk, any sign or article exposed for sale or to attach any sign, wooden or non-moveable awning, shed or cover or any other thing to any building and across or over any sidewalk or part thereof—provided, that this section shall not apply to any sign or article exposed for sale which does not project from any building over the sidewalk more than three feet and shall be hung that the lowest part thereof is not less than seven feet above the surface of the sidewalk, and provided that this section shall not apply to canvas awnings with iron framework, or proper hinges or pivots, attached firmly to the building, elevated at least eight feet in the lowest part thereof from the surface of the sidewalk and projecting over the sidewalk not to exceed three-fourths of the width thereof.

Another ordinance explains where any projection is installed on a building a permit must first be obtained from the Board of Public Service.

Adkins termed the case unfair to Mr. Root as many business firms in the city have installed new signs during the last year that do not comply with the regulations. No arrests were made.

month, his gross receipts for the preceding month. A penalty of one percent a month for failure to make returns at the required time would be levied.

A fine of from $25 to $500 would be imposed upon persons found guilty of making false returns.

Rep. Ruth Lloyd, D., Scioto, chairman of the house taxation committee, said her committee would begin consideration of the Thorne, Kasch and Huml income tax proposals Tuesday. It was understood the Huml bill, which was drawn by the state tax commission, is the most favored of the three proposals.

100 Votes Assured

The author, Rep. Lady Huml, D., Cuyahoga, contends he is assured of 100 favorable votes if and when the bill reaches the house floor.

While the Huml bill, because of the complicated machinery that would be required to administer it, is not being seriously considered as an emergency proposal to meet the April 15 relief crisis, it was pointed out that should the emergency corporation proposal be approved, the state could possibly issue bonds in anticipation of income tax revenues, estimated at about $18,000,000 annually.

At the same time, house leaders announced the house would begin consideration of the $89,000,000 biennial appropriations bill Tuesday.

Before leaving for home, the house passed and sent to the senate the Huml anti-injunction bill prohibiting courts from issuing injunctions against membership in labor unions, giving aid to strikers' dependents, peaceful picketing and assembly, publicizing the strikers' grievances or receiving strike benefits.

The measure also provides injunctions may not be granted unless it can be proved unlawful acts have been committed or threatened and holds that labor leaders cannot be held responsible for unlawful acts unless a definite proof is offered.

The measure, which Rep. Huml said was identical with the Norris-LaGuardia act passed by Congress in 1932, guarantees open hearings with both parties to labor disputes present before injunctions may be granted.

The vote was 87 to 13. In the senate, anti-administration forces pushed through passage of bill providing free hospitalization for old age pensioners.

were injected into a sharp controversy growing out of the senate judiciary committee hearings.

Dodd, Lawyer, Called

Walter F. Dodd, Chicago lawyer and constitutional authority, appeared before the committee today to oppose the court bill as a measure calling for the "surrender of all essential principles of our government."

The controversy over use of relief funds resulted in a sharp clash between Burke and Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D., Wyo., as a sequel to Burke's charges during yesterday's committee hearing.
